Chapter 1 by Jason Adams

Genesis: In the beginning God created the heavens and the earths.

This was 17 trillion years ago. After creating the universe, God, in all his divine wisdom, knew that all he had created needed to be looked over. He created a guardian, a protector over all. Thus the Lord God created an Angel. He called them Tauklians. These Tauklians took on a physical appearance and were charged to travel the universe, God's playground, and to watch over and guide those that were brought forth with life.

But with Good, there must be Evil. One Tauklian chose not to follow the divine ways of God. Therefore, God, with all His powers cast out this Tauklian. The Lord twisted his body, deformed his frame and thus was born the Kril-Ik-Nok..
